THINK THROUGH

ROLE PLAY Ruby and Anna

Work in pairs. Student A is Ruby and Student B is Anna. Write and act out the conversation.

A

Anna isn't sick now and can be in the play, but you want to be in the play. Tell Anna how you feel and what you would like to do.

I'm very nervous.

I know all my lines.

I want to do the play.

I think I can do it.

Anna has an idea. Listen and respond to it.

What a great idea!

B

You aren't sick now and want to be in the play, but Ruby is ready now and would like the part. Tell Ruby how you feel and what you would like to do.

Thanks for helping, Ruby.

It was nice of you to help.

I really want to do the part.

I know I can do it.

I'm very excited.

You have an idea. Tell Ruby that you could share the part with her. She can do it one day and you can do it the next.

Why don't we both do it?
